RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

AugCap LLC

Remote

Investment Analyst Intern

September 2026 - Present

- Built 5-year DCF models on 3 prospective financial firms that the company is evaluating for investment, which include a neo-investment bank, an AI-native venture studio, and a private-equity search fund
- Projected each company's path from early operating losses to sustained EBITDA profitability by 2031, deriving unlevered free cash flow and identifying the year each business turns cash-flow positive
- Discounted cash flows using risk-adjusted WACC and EBITDA exit multiples calibrated to each company's stage and risk profile, with high/base/low case sensitivity across all 3 models

Independent Trader

Futures Order Flow & Equity Options

November 2024 - Present

- Trade prop firm evaluations with an order flow model on index futures using the DOM, footprint charts, volume profile, and options flow, keeping a 150+ entry journal of daily biases, entries, exits, and execution errors
- Generated a 30% realized, net-of-commission YTD return in 2026 on a $10K independently managed account through equity-options swing trades on large-cap stocks with disciplined exits
- Backtested a discretionary order flow trading model on ES futures tick data across 121 trading days using an AI-assisted Python simulation; the strategy that held up out-of-sample produced 84 trades at a 1.94 profit factor

YouTube Content Agency

Millburn, NJ

Founder & Executive Director

June 2024 - Present

- Scaled a solo media operation from 2M to a peak of 120M monthly views within 6 months and launched approximately 10 channels across multiple content niches
- Maintain seven active channels and direct production of roughly 100 short-form videos per month through standardized scripting, editing, quality-control, and publishing workflows
- Lead 11 paid editors and approximately 15 total team members past and present, overseeing hiring, training, performance reviews, workload allocation, and production deadlines
- Generated five-figure revenue and built a 2,000-member Discord community by applying retention analytics, creator partnerships, and channel-level performance data to growth decisions

Rutgers Department of Finance

New Brunswick, NJ

Undergraduate Research Assistant, Professor Alex Van Zant

June 2026 - Present

- Conduct research under Professor Alex Van Zant, whose scholarship bridges business management and psychology, with emphasis on social judgment, moral self-perception, and organizational behavior
- Analyzed and peer-reviewed 3 academic studies examining why people perceive themselves as holier but less evil than others, why people comply with advice that presents a conflict of interest, and how deception breeds trust
- Evaluated each study's theoretical framing, research methodology, supporting evidence, and conclusions to prepare structured discussion points for continued faculty research
